Dear Ms Meyer

As the Opti-MINDS 2010 Challenge begins, I would like to wish all participants well in this year's competition.

From the words of Albert Einstein, "Imagination is more important than knowledge. For while knowledge defines all we currently know and understand, imagination points to all we might yet discover and create."

The young people taking part in the Opti-MINDS Challenge are the future thinkers, inventors, designers, teachers, politicians, and caretakers of tomorrow.

I am confident this year's event will again inspire confidence, hope and excitement in our future.

The organisers, principals, teachers and other volunteers who provide their commitment to the Opti-MINDS Challenge are also to be commended.

I wish everyone a successful 2010 Opti-MINDS Challenge.

Yours sincerely

GEOFF WILSON MP
